Washington, D.C. 20505

March 20, 1991

The Honorable David L. Boren, Chairman
Select Committee on Intelligence
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Mr. Chairman:

As you begin your series of hearings on the subject of Intelligence Community organization, I want you to know that you will have my full cooperation and that of senior Community managers. It is important to the President, to the Congress, and indeed to all of us in intelligence that the Community functions at its very best in the service of the nation.

Preparing to meet the challenges of the 1990s has been a central focus of mine. In earlier testimony, we in the Community outlined in general terms how we have been going about this task, and we expect to keep you fully informed as we further refine our plans. The Committee's efforts cannot help but enlighten the process, and I look forward to reviewing with you the results of your hearings and staff studies.

Sincerely,

William H. Webster
